SERIAL OFFENDERS

Beauty Store – Dublin, CA – February 15

Three suspects entered a beauty store and stole about $1500 worth of merchandise, including an ORC Tracker™, then fled the store. Local police responded to the crime and tracked the suspect vehicle to an address in Oakland. Together with local Organized Retail Crime detectives, they obtained a search warrant. They recovered a loaded, short-barreled AR-15 assault rifle with ammunition and a loaded handgun. They detained two men and one woman and recovered over $250,000 in stolen inventory from the beauty store as well as other stores, including a popular apparel store. ORC detectives had been investigating this location as a potential hub for fencing stolen items.

ROBBERY

Pharmacy – Annapolis, MD – February 9

A lone male suspect entered the pharmacy, produced a handgun, and demanded narcotic medications. He was given an undetermined amount of drugs and a PharmaTracker®. The suspect fled the scene in a vehicle. Responding officers used the tracking data from PharmaTracker to pursue the vehicle. When they located it, the suspect had already bailed out and was on foot. The handgun used was recovered in the vehicle. As the set up perimeter was slowly closed, the stolen narcotics were located after being abandoned by the suspect. Shortly thereafter the suspect was located and arrested without incident. All the stolen narcotics were recovered and kept off the streets.

$72,500 – Partial Recovery

Jewelry Store – Stockton, CA – February 9

Around 4PM, four armed suspects entered the jewelry store. They stole approximately $145,000 in jewelry and watches as well as a Jewelry Tracker™. Officers responded and

When they traveled into a neighboring county, the pursuit was turned over to the Alameda County Sheriff's Air Unit who continued the chase into Oakland where several suspects were arrested. At time of arrest, approximately half of the stolen merchandise was recovered. The other suspects are known to police and warrants for them were written and served.
$30,000 - Full Recovery 1 arrest	Consumer Electronics Store – Philadelphia, PA – February 15 Just before opening time, a lone suspect broke into a consumer electronics store. He was able to access the stored inventory and stole a large number of phones. Luckily, the Phone Tracker™ he unknowingly stole reported the crime to police who were logged in and tracking. The suspect was quickly located and arrested. All the stolen merchandise was recovered.
Full Recovery 2 arrests	Convenience Store – Kensington, MD – February 18 Two male suspects entered the convenience store and went directly behind the service counter. They stole multiple packs of cigarettes as well as a Tobacco Tracker™ and fled on foot. Responding patrol officers were given the direction of travel and had both suspects in custody within just 13 minutes of the crime happening. All the stolen inventory was recovered.
Full Recovery 1 arrest	Bank – Anaheim, CA – February 18 A lone suspect entered a bank branch and demanded money. He was given cash as well as a Cash Tracker™ which notified police of the crime. Responding officers were able to follow the active tracker's path to locate and arrest the suspect in just 4 minutes. All the stolen cash was recovered.
$1,620 – Full Recovery 1 arrest	Credit Union – Rochester, NY – February 18 A lone male suspect entered the credit union branch and gave the teller a note demanding cash. The teller complied and gave him $1,620 as well as a Cash Tracker™ which reported the crime to police. The suspect fled on foot and was apprehended a short time later by police. All the stolen cash was recovered.
